

Christmas Junior Casuals (Hallam, Victoria)

Retail / Warehouse Assistants Hi-Fi Audio/Visual & Home Theatre

Enthusiastic about retail sales & customer service in a AV & Home Theatre setting?

Who Are We?

Selby Acoustics is passionate about providing top Home Theatre, Hi-Fi, and AV accessories to Australians. As one of Australia's largest independent retailers, we offer a vast selection of Audio Visual Electronics and a wide range of cables, stands, mounting systems, and accessories from top brands, including our own.

We currently have opportunities for Christmas casuals to assist in our retail store and warehouse. You will be required to work shifts at both of our Hallam locations. We are looking for individuals who are reliable and enthusiastic team players and enjoy a fast paced, ever-changing work environment.

It is essential that you have excellent written and spoken English. This is a key criterion for this role due to the amount of writing and speaking on the phone that may be required.

Working at our Hallam locations, duties will vary from retail customer service at the store to order fulfilment at the warehouse. Some heavy lifting and constant movement is involved, with most work in areas that are not climate controlled in the hot/cold weather.

The successful candidate will be able to demonstrate:

- Excellent written and spoken English.
- A commitment to excellent customer service.
- Excellent email communication and telephone skills.
- Multi-tasking and problem solving capabilities
- Flexible availability to work November through to mid-January including weekends
