

Warehouse Team Member (Hallam, Victoria)

Full Time Position for entry level warehouse team member.

Who Are We?

Selby Acoustics is passionate about providing top Home Theatre, Hi-Fi, and AV accessories to Australians. As one of Australia's largest independent retailers, we offer a vast selection of Audio Visual Electronics and a wide range of cables, stands, mounting systems, and accessories from top brands, including our own.

Our business has been growing rapidly and we have a full time opportunity for a person in consumer order pick and pack routines to help us continue this fantastic growth record. We are looking for an individual who is fit, committed and an enthusiastic team player.

This position includes heavy lifting work and unloading shipping containers of heavy goods, therefore fitness and core strength are very important for this job.

This job is fulltime Monday to Friday, please be able to work 38 hours a week during normal business hours.

Working at our Head Office in Hallam, Victoria, you will be an important contributor to our fantastic customer service through attention to detail, high energy and a responsible attitude.

The right person will be:

- A reliable person with a good work ethic and high energy.
- Very good attention to detail and good with numbers.
- A team player with good personal fitness and core strength.
- Experience in a like position is desirable.
- Able to demonstrate integrity and honesty.

This position will be remunerated at award rates and you will be joining a dynamic team in a company that is experiencing rapid growth and change.

How To Apply?

Send your Cover & Resume to careers@selby.com.au with the job title as the subject!

selby
.com.au